Lesson 18

DELIVERED TO WORSHIP: LET MY PEOPLE GO!

The theme of worship is at the core of every story and prophecy in the Bible. Conflicts between God's people and enemy nations are about which God is worthy of worship. The Lord God Jehovah delivering Israel from Egyptian bondage answers that question. He alone is worthy!

Directions: Read the Bible texts at the end of each statement, then circle TRUE or FALSE, or FILL IN THE BLANKS. PRAY FIRST!

1. In the Bible, God uses different names to describe Himself. (Exodus 6:2-3) TRUE-FALSE
2. God's covenant with His people—ancient Israel and Christians today—includes complete deliverance from b _ _ _ _ _ and b _ _ _ _ _ so that we can worship Him. He will use His stretched out a _ _ and great j _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ to accomplish this. (Exodus 6:5-8)
3. God sent Ten Plagues on Egypt to free His people. Name the Ten Plagues. ans. 1. _____ Exo. 7:17; 2. _____ Exo. 8:2; 3. _____ Exo. 8:16; 4. _____ Exo. 8:21; 5. _____ Exo. 9:3; 6. _____ Exo. 9:9; 7. _____ Exo. 9:18; 8. _____ Exo. 10:4; 9. _____ Exo. 10:21; 10. _____ Exo. 11:5
4. Satan does not mind us being partially delivered; but he hates it when we make a complete break from him. This is evident from the way in which he used Pharaoh to offer ancient Israel partial freedom. (Exodus 8:28; 10:7-11, 24-26) TRUE-FALSE
5. God passed over the houses of the Israelites and none of their first born was killed because they obeyed God by spreading the blood of a lamb over the top and side door posts of their houses. What did the lamb and its blood symbolize? (Exodus 12:12-13; John 1:29) ans. J _ _ _ _ ' B _ _ _ _ that was shed for our sins that He might save us.
6. The story of the Ten Plagues on Egypt parallels the Seven Last Plagues that God will soon send upon this world. He sent the Ten Plagues on Egypt to free His people from Egyptian oppression, and to take them to the land of Canaan that He promised them. And He is going to send the Seven Last Plagues on this world to free His people from this world's oppression, and ultimately take them to the Heavenly Canaan that He has promised them. (Exodus 6:4-8; Revelation 15:1; 16:1-21) TRUE-FALSE
